STUDENT APPLICATION - SPRING 2019

YOU MAY BE ELIGIBLE TO JOIN OUR THIRD COHORT OF

EVA KASTAN GROVE FELLOWS

AND LEARN FROM OUR CITY'S ACCOMPLISHED AND INFLUENTIAL PUBLIC SERVANTS.

The Grove Fellowship Program is a prestigious and rigorous fellowship that provides mentorship, professional development, support, and a $2000 stipend, to Grove Fellows, students who are committed to public service, public policy and human rights.

The Grove Fellowship Program provides students with an opportunity to learn from Grove Leaders, accomplished public policy and human rights leaders and scholars who spend the Spring 2019 semester (January 25, 2019 - May 22, 2019) mentoring students and facilitating discussions on campus. Grove Fellows work with a Grove Leader and a cohort of up to five students to complete a project that advances public policy and human rights locally, nationally or globally. Fellows also visit spaces where policies are drafted, introduced, debated or implemented.

Eligibility Requirements

Candidates must have earned, at minimum, 30 credits and be enrolled at Hunter College during the Spring 2019 semester as full-time students (12 or more credits). A minimum of 1/3 of these credits must have been earned at Hunter College. Graduate students and individuals with advanced degrees are not eligible to apply. Successful applicants will show evidence of the following:

- Academic excellence
- Leadership potential
- A history of, or future commitment to, public service
Application Deadline and Materials:

You must submit this application form along with the following required documents to complete your application by the deadline, November 13, 2018 at 5:00 PM:

- Most recent undergraduate student transcript (unofficial transcripts are accepted)
- A written essay of 650 words or less that speaks to each of the following:
  1. What inspired your interest in public service?
  2. Describe an activity or volunteer experience at an organization where you contributed to the public good?
  3. Which issue areas do you care about most?
  4. What are your professional aspirations upon graduating Hunter?
  5. How will the Grove Fellowship Program help you achieve these goals?

Application Checklist:

- Make sure there are no grammatical errors or type-os on the application.
- Please make sure all information provided is clear and accurate.

Submission Instructions:

Please submit the application using the portal on The Roosevelt House Public Policy Institute at Hunter College website.

Selection Process

The program has a competitive selection process and strives to select a class of Fellows who are academically, geographically and culturally diverse based upon the applicant pool.

If you have questions about the application process, please email Malkie Schwartz, at mschwar@hunter.cuny.edu.

THE EVA KASTAN GROVE FELLOWSHIP APPLICATION
Program Rules

1. Eva Kastan Grove Fellows are required to write a “Thank You Letter” to the Grove family.

2. Eva Kastan Grove Fellows must be enrolled at the college full-time (minimum of 12 credits).

3. Eva Kastan Grove Fellowship stipend to a student shall not exceed the cost of attendance as determined by the student’s completed FAFSA. Where a student has a tuition balance at the time the stipend is awarded, the stipend will be distributed to the Bursar’s Office and only remaining funds will be directed to the student by the Office of Financial Aid.

4. Eva Kastan Grove Fellows are required to attend 8 weekly study groups with a Grove Leader and complete a project. Fellows are required to designate approximately 10 hours/week to complete the requirements of The Eva Kastan Grove Fellowship Program.

5. Eva Kastan Grove Fellows are expected to attend every workshop and event associated with this program. Absences are not tolerated and will only be excused for family or medical emergencies. Proof of the emergency has to be supported by official written documentation. Even excessive absences for excused family or medical reasons may result in expulsion from the program.

6. Eva Kastan Grove Fellows found guilty of plagiarism, academic integrity or conduct disorder may result in their expulsion from the program. This will be managed on a case by case basis.

7. The Eva Kastan Grove Fellows are responsible for timely response and action to all email, phone and text correspondences from the program and Hunter College Administration.

8. Hunter College reserves the right to make adjustments and changes to the overall program and rules that govern The Eva Kastan Grove Fellowship Program. Fellows will be notified of such changes with ample time to meet the terms and remain in good standing.

9. Eva Kastan Grove Fellows are required to attend a minimum of two evening programs at Roosevelt House during the course of the semester. These two events must not fulfill separate course or program requirements.

My signature below attests that I have read the Eva Kastan Grove Fellowship Program rules and if selected to participate in the program, agree to abide by them during my participation in the Eva Kastan Grove Fellowship Program. I understand that failure to comply with the program rules may result in my removal from the program and the loss of the financial award associated with the Fellowship.
