

AGENDA

Democratic Emerging Powers and the International Human Rights System

A Research and Policy Dialogue Workshop

12 December 2012, 9.30am-4pm

Roosevelt House Public Policy Institute
Hunter College
47-49 East 65th Street

The “Four Freedoms” Room

9.30–10.00am	Registration	Coffee/tea & light breakfast available
10am–12.15pm	Session 1
	Workshop overview	Rob Jenkins (Dept of Political Science, Hunter College)
	Welcome remarks	Jonathan Fanton (Roosevelt House Public Policy Institute)
	Keynote speaker	Kenneth Roth (Human Rights Watch)
	Paper presentation	Bertrand Ramcharan (UPR Info.) “Democratic Emerging Powers and the UN’s Human Rights Bodies”
12.15–1.00pm	Buffet lunch	West foyer
1.00–2.15pm	Session 2
	Paper presentation	Rob Jenkins (Dept of Political Science, Hunter College) “Democratic Emerging Powers and Human Rights at the UN Security Council”
2.15–2.30pm	Tea/coffee	West foyer
2.30–4.00pm	Session 3
	Paper presentation	Emma Mawdsley (Dept of Geography, Cambridge University) “Democratic Emerging Powers, Human Rights, and International Development: Changing Norms & Architectures”
	Thematic synthesis	Volker Lehman (Friedrich Ebert Stiftung, New York Office)

The workshop is by-invitation-only. Discussions are off-the-record and not-for-attribution.